

P84

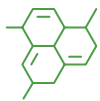

Go Beyond Basic Gut Health

You know those days when something just feels off — your digestion's sluggish, your focus is foggy, and your energy's flat? That's because your gut does more than digestion. It's constantly communicating with your entire body— so when your gut is out of balance, everything feels out of balance. P84 brings that balance back.

P84 goes beyond basic gut supplementation by activating 14 key peptides in your gut to regulate, repair, and restore balance with probiotics, prebiotics, postbiotics, digestive enzymes, and superfood blends to help your gut thrive.*⁺⁺⁺

Frequently Asked Questions

How should I take P84?

Take P84 in the morning, with or without food, by mixing both PhytoPower 1 and PhytoPower 2 into 16 oz. of water or your favorite beverage. Do not heat the product to maintain the integrity of the ingredients.

Why are there 2 formulas for P84?

PhytoPower 1 and PhytoPower 2 each play a distinct role in supporting your gut. Together, they deliver complete, balanced gut-health support.*

Will I experience any side effects from taking P84?

Because everyone's gut is different, your experience with P84 may vary. Occasional bloating or digestive changes can happen as your body adjusts. These are normal signs that balance is being restored.

If you feel like your gut is more sensitive to change, we recommend starting slowly:

- If you feel any discomfort, pause for 1 day.
- Then, take half a packet of both PhytoPower 1 and 2 for the next 2 days.
- On day 4, increase to a full packet of each.
- Adjust as needed and listen to your body.

What will I experience when I take P84?

Activating your gut is one of the most effective ways to support overall wellness. As balance is restored, you may notice benefits such as increased energy, elevated mood, clearer-looking skin, better focus, and improved mental clarity. *

Results and timing vary—some people notice changes within days, others in a few weeks. Stay consistent and use P84 for at least 30 days to allow your body to adjust and maximize benefits.

Are there any changes to current gut-health products, and how should I use them with P84?

Daily Wellness, ProBio, and Prebiotic are excellent products that continue to support gut health. Each offers unique benefits and can be taken with P84. P84 stands apart with its comprehensive Activation that targets key gut peptides to regulate, repair, and restore balance from within.*
